

NEWSTEAD COLLEGE MIXED PROGRAMS

2017
SUBJECT OFFERINGS

Pathways to Work (Work Readiness) I

WRK110

TCE Points	15 points
Level	I
Demonstrates TCE literacy standard	NO
Demonstrates TCE numeracy standard	NO
Demonstrates TCE ICT standard	NO
EXTERNAL EXAM	NO
EXTERNAL FOLIO	NO
AVAILABLE THROUGH FLEXIBLE DELIVERY	NO

HIGHLY RECOMMENDED An interest in career planning

EXTRA CURRICULA OPPORTUNITIES

Work Placement

SUBJECT DESCRIPTION

Work Readiness aims to prepare students for employment.

The course is aimed at students who are looking for general entry into the workforce and will give students the skills that they need to seek, gain and maintain employment.

Students will identify personal skills and attributes that a job seeker needs to have a career in certain industries and explore what it means to be a casual, part-time or permanent employee.

Areas of study in this course:

- Personal attributes that contribute to overall employability
- Interpersonal communication that contributes to productive, working relationships and outcomes
- Knowledge of self - Knowledge of the workplace
- Safety in the workplace - Teamwork
- Actively seek work Performance in the workplace

Past Students Said:

"I am feeling more confident about looking for work now. It has been really good going to work places and seeing what is expected of me."

Work Readiness 2

WRK210

TCE Points	15 points
Level	2
Demonstrates TCE literacy standard	YES
Demonstrates TCE numeracy standard	YES
Demonstrates TCE ICT standard	YES
EXTERNAL EXAM	NO
EXTERNAL FOLIO	NO
AVAILABLE THROUGH FLEXIBLE DELIVERY	NO

HIGHLY RECOMMENDED An interest in career planning

EXTRA CURRICULA OPPORTUNITIES

Work Placement
*Road Awareness Course 5pts

SUBJECT DESCRIPTION

Work Readiness aims to prepare students for employment.

The course is aimed at students who are looking for general entry into the workforce and will give students the skills that they need to seek, gain and maintain employment.

Students will identify personal skills and attributes that a job seeker needs to have a career in certain industries and explore what it means to be a casual, part-time or permanent employee.

Areas of study in this course:

- Personal attributes that contribute to overall employability
- Interpersonal communication that contributes to productive, working relationships and outcomes
- Knowledge of self - Knowledge of the workplace
- Safety in the workplace - Teamwork
- Actively seek work Performance in the workplace

Student Directed Inquiry 3

SDI3I5I13

TCE Points	15 credit points
Level	3
Demonstrates TCE literacy standard	YES
Demonstrates TCE numeracy standard	NO
Demonstrates TCE ICT standard	NO
EXTERNAL EXAM	NO
EXTERNAL FOLIO	NO
AVAILABLE THROUGH FLEXIBLE DELIVERY	YES
HIGHLY RECOMMENDED	CA or better in level 3 subjects from Year 11. fluent writing skills. ability to work independently.
SUGGESTED FOUNDATION SUBJECT YR 11	SOSE or English preferably at level 3 other level 3 subjects
EXTRA CURRICULA OPPORTUNITIES	As determined by inquiry topic

SUBJECT DESCRIPTION

Available in Grade 12 only, you will conduct an in-depth inquiry.

You will:

- select a topic of your own choice.
- work independently with support from a mentor and access to experts.
- reflect a range of perspectives and disciplines.
- create a final product that could take any form.
- present this to the assessment panel (no exams).

Past Students Said:

"This subject is really different! Motivation and organisation are the keys to success."

"My topic changed throughout the year, and I learned so much about it, as well as myself, as I explored through inquiry!"