The Newstead Residence aims to.....

Provide a safe, healthy and happy environment for country and isolated students who wish to further education. Foster a caring, atmosphere which is conducive to study and supportive of the needs of all students.

In addition, all students residing at the Newstead Residence are subject to the Behavioural Code of Newstead College. Details of this Behavioural Code will be discussed in the first week. However, acceptance of the following is a necessary step in applying for a position at the Residence.

The following behaviours are unacceptable and may result in removal from the Newstead Residence.

- Violence or harassment of any kind;
- Theft or vandalism;
- Nuisance behaviour – out after curfew, not leaving by 8:30am, non payment of rent, messy unit/room, leaving washing up etc.
- Swearing and obscene language;
- Smoking on the site.
- Non compliance with manager or supervisor's instructions.
- The use, possession or distribution of alcohol or illegal or non-prescribed drugs, will result in immediate removal from the residence.

Financial Requirements

A security deposit of $300.00 is to be forwarded to Newstead College with your acceptance of an offered position. This security will be refunded at the end of the school year providing due care and consideration has been given to the Residence property. In the event of damage, you will be invoiced for any repairs to equipment or property as they occur. Weekly rent is payable 2 weeks in advance.

Undertaking:

We have read and understood the rules and routines outlined above, including security deposit conditions. We acknowledge that residency at the Newstead Residence depends upon our acceptance of these rules.
